

Belle Ame at Home At-a-Glance Transcript

Belle Ame at Home is a value-packed community platform for families and individuals who want to integrate more of the Well-Educated Heart philosophy of learning and living in their lives. Whether you have been doing Well-Educated Heart for years or are brand new, this community is for you.

Belle Ame at Home is a virtual center for artful living. Take a yearly tour around the world through the Well-Educated Heart rotation schedule and fall in love with our world by learning to pay attention.

Membership includes:

Monart drawing instruction Music Together classes, The Art of Storytelling, Nutritional cooking classes, Crafter activities, Hand and machine sewing projects, and you can even learn folk dancing.

We have a Storyteller's corner where professional storytellers will retell stories from the Forgotten Classics.

A membership to Biblioguides is included, an incredible searchable database of the best children's books ever written.

And that's not all.

We'll help your kids find friends and facilitate friendship circles where they can learn and share together virtually as well as in person. We provide prompts and inspiration for learning. We encourage families to gather in cultural celebrations.

Your teens and tweens can come explore our informal teen club offerings with incredible mentors who will guide them in topics like Shakespeare, World Events, Painting, the Art of Conversation or get together in virtual Book Club discussions.

Monthly downloadable guidebooks come with maps, supply lists, quotes for copywork, and ideas of people and events to learn about in their 'pasture' learning time where students are allowed to ask their own questions and follow that which interests them.

An Academic Station offers Academic resources as well as one-on-one support.

We have a Mother's Corner with the Catch the Vision intro course built right into the platform with live support .

No one need make this journey alone with this community platform. All the classes are pre-recorded which means you choose what you want to participate in and when you want to do it. You are in charge. There is something here for every age.

When you consider that a single class in Monart or Music Together for one student begins at $65.00/mo., you will begin to recognize the incredible value being offered to families in this community. The cost for membership is just $79/month per family. You can join at any time and look around with our 7 day free trial. There is no contract or obligation.

There are hundreds of families in our community—we hope you will come and join us!

Learn more at belleameathome.com